No.503-55/W. Dated, Bangalore, the 29th July 1942.

From

The Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

To

The Heads f Departments.
The Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District.

Sir,

I am directed to state that Government consider it desirable that in the present circumstances, as large a number of persons as possible should have knowledge of first aid and sick nursing. Facilities now exist for such training in the Bangalore City through the courtesy of the St. John Ambulance Association. Government would be glad if the Heads of Departments and Offices will advise the members of their staff about the usefulness of the training and induce as many officials as possible in Bangalore City who are of the age of 4 or less to take advantage of these facilities and undergo the training in first aid. Similarly the lady teachers in the Education Department may be advised to undergo a training in sick nursing.

Lists of officials desirous of undergoing the training may be sent to the Senior Surgeon to enable the latter to arrange for the training.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

For Chief Secretary to Government.
